

Last Chance Eucharist

Sundays 7:30 pm

Hosannas Commonplace Chapel

Debuts Sunday May 14

Are Sunday mornings difficult for you? Not a morning person?

Are you working on Sunday mornings?

Are you a worship leader in another church?

Would you like the opportunity to worship on a Sunday evening, in the beauty of God's creation?

We are excited to announce the introduction of a weekly

'LAST CHANCE' Eucharist!

This 7:30 pm Sunday celebration will be the 'last chance' for Sunday worship among Anglican churches in the city of London.

Our worship will be in THE HOSANNAS COMMONPLACE CHAPEL. This newly named worship space located just outside our church doors at 1246 Oxford St. W., and set into the trees of the Sifton Bog - a natural cathedral of God's making.

THIS WILL BE A WEEKLY CELEBRATION !